Excerpt: . . . 11 Im happy to see the Postmaster General making the Postal Service more efficient. I think it should be clear to everyone, however, that the kind of cost cutting the Postal Service has engaged in this year cannot be sustained and will not be what makes the Postal Service a fiscally sound entity in the long term. As the economy begins to pick up, the Postal Service may very well see an in-crease in volume as the Postmaster General predicts. At the same time, however, the number of addresses they are required to deliver to will continue to increase. I dont know what effect this years workforce reductions and the continued facilities freeze is having on service right now, but if the Postal Service intends to continue balancing its budget by cutting employees and avoiding new facilities construction, it will...
