Continuum Publishing Corporation, United States, 2011. Paperback. Book Condition: New. 196 x 130 mm. Language: English . Brand New Book. This is a selection of the most humorous and outspoken articles from Mike Kent s popular feature column in the TES . When Mike Kent started teaching over half a century ago there was no national curriculum, no testing and schools were inspected, briefly, once in a blue moon. Mike has watched primary education spiral through enormous changes over the decades. Some changes have been worthwhile. Many have not. But if he is unhappy with a new initiative, or irritated by an incomprehensible directive from the men in suits, he ll do what he does best.pick up his pen and share it with his readers in a witty, whimsical way. This collection of articles from Mike Kent s popular weekly column in the TES covers a whole range of amusing incidents about daily life in a busy London primary school. From the fire officer who called the children s display work hazardous wall substances , to the class that caused the alarm to go off at Hampton Court and the burglar who stayed to play with a train set, Mike s anecdotes chronicle the trials and tribulations of modern primary headship.
