Createspace, United States, 2015. Paperback. Book Condition: New. 198 x 129 mm. Language: English . Brand New Book ***** Print on Demand *****.Every new immigrant to Canada comes with dreams, hopes and a possibility of having a great job and a great life. Immigration itself is a major task to accomplish and after the years of waiting, the stress and jumping multiple loops, every immigrant dreams of integrating with the Canadian society and becoming a part of the fabric that millions of people from all over the world have embraced. After landing in Canada you are faced with the daunting task of looking for a place to stay, getting your papers in order and then applying for jobs in the local market. This is where the going gets tough for most people. Getting a job in Canada is like getting a job in any other developed country. Companies have job openings, you have a resume and you think you fit the bill and you apply. After a few weeks you may get a call for an interview and maybe even get the job, or get turned down. For those that get the jobs, things may seem better, but more often than once, you may have to apply for a new job and a new position. Sometimes it may take weeks or even months to find the right fit. In this book you will learn from the experiences of real landed immigrants in Canada, their job search experiences, and their career choices, you will learn more than just how to apply for a job. You will learn how to get in front of the hiring manager and to show them why you are the best candidate for the position. In addition, learn about the various industries, seasons for hiring and the...
