Sixthly, It is also necessary, that he that cometh to God by the Lord Jesus, should know what death is, and the uncertainty of its approaches upon us. Death is, as I may call it the feller, the cutter down. Death is that that puts a stop to further living here, and that which lay snap. where it finds him: If he is in the faith in Jesus, it lays him down there to sleep, till the Lord comes: If he be not in the faith, it lays him down in his sins, until the Lord comes. Again, . if thou hast from beginnings things that look like good, and death should overtake thee before those beginnings are ripe, thy fruit will wither, and thou wilt fall short of being gathered into God's barn. Some men are cut off like the top of the ear of corn, and some are even nipped by death in the very bud of their spring: but the safety is with Christ, a man it rip, and shall be gathered to his garner, as a (hock) corn to the barn in its season. Now, if death should surprise and seize thee before thou art (it to die, all it lost; for there it be repentant. see in the grave; or rather, as the wife man; hat it, Whatsoever thy hand findeth to do, do it with all thy might; for there is no work. c.,...
