Createspace, United States, 2012. Paperback. Book Condition: New. 229 x 152 mm. Language: English . Brand New Book  Print on Demand .This book is the author s summary of his 22 years of research to explore why people go through crises. It zeroes in on divorce because that is what this author went through twice but, pertains to most crises. It is a self-help counseling book. It helps people go to the roots of their problem(s) to get to a solution much quicker. It does not take months to get to a solution but usually only a few hours or a few days. Most problems have a spiritual base so that needs to be addressed to get to the solution. The book has over 70 references because the author realizes that many people have written books that contain helpful information. The author acknowledges that most people don t want to take only one author s opinion that his suggestion(s) are the right way to go. You will find multiple references to back up his suggestions. The end result is perfect peace which many people are looking for today, inner healing, physical healing, spiritual cleansing of our residence, a filter to know what things get us into trouble with crises, prayers for children in trouble and a savings of time in hunting for solutions to life s problems. By knowing a forbidden list of doorways we stay on the least painful road in life. The biggest help in the book is if you have opened some wrong spiritual doorways in life it helps you walk back out of those doorways. Sometimes those doorways can be inter-generational which means you did not open the spiritual doorway(s) but your ancestors did. The theme in the book is spiritual ignorance gets people into...
