BEFORE THE SCARLET DAWN

Abingdon Press. Paperback. Book Condition: New. Paperback. 336 pages. Dimensions: 8.4in. x 5.4in. x 1.0in. (Historical Fiction - Prequel to Beside Two Rivers. Book 1 in The Daughters of the Potomac Series) A young woman longs for acceptance and leaves behind all she has in order to follow her heart and the man she loves into the Maryland wilderness. On a windswept night in April of 1775, Eliza Bloome sat at her fathers bedside hoping he would recover. A servant arrived with a message for Reverend Bloome, a proposal of marriage that would set Eliza up for the rest of her life. When Eliza learns of the proposal, she rejects it. She does not love the man who has offered her a comfortable life, but instead falls in love with Hayward Morgan, the slightly condescending son of a landed gentleman who has recently returned from America. Out on the misty moors of the Hope Valley, Hayward rescues her from the unwelcome advances of a local scamp. And when Eliza learns of his plans to leave England and build a life in the Maryland frontier, she decides to present a proposal of her own. But before she can make such a bold attempt, Elizas father dies, and she receives word from Haywards father that she must vacate the vicarage to make room for a new minister, his wife, and children. Forced to leave the home she grew up in, Eliza grows desperate. She could marry her former suitor, but cannot bear the idea of being bound in a loveless marriage. Wearing her best gown, she arrives at Havendale, the Morgan ancestral home, to inquire whether Haywards mother would give her a position. As she waits in the outer hall, she overhears a conversation between Hayward and Lilith Marsden. Hayward proposes, and at...
