

Hurricane IIB Combat Log: 151 Wing RAF - North Russia 1941 (Paperback)

By Hugh Harkins

Centurion Publishing, United Kingdom, 2013. Paperback. Book Condition: New. 1. 240 x 164 mm. Language: English . Brand New Book  Print on Demand .Hawker Hurricane - No.151 Wing RAF (Royal Air Force) was formed at the end of July 1941 as a two Squadron Hawker Hurricane wing incorporating No. 81 and 134 Squadrons, which were formed in the last days of July 1941 at RAF Leconfield. The formation of the Wing followed discussions at the highest level of British government following the German invasion of the Soviet Union in June 1941. Operation Barbarossa had met with enormous success, the Soviet Forces being defeat in pitched battles, falling back all along the front. Britain was under pressure to aid its new ally, the Soviet Union. Although unwilling to provide the asked for ground forces, the British government decided that all possible material aid should be given to the Soviet Union to keep her in the fight. British Prime Minister Churchill was under no illusions; knowing well that Britain alone was never going to be able to provide the huge armies necessary to defeat Germany. The Soviet Union was now a way for the Germans to be fought en-mass. As...

READ ONLINE
[6.49 MB]

Reviews

An extremely wonderful book with lucid and perfect information. It is one of the most awesome publication i have read. Your life period will probably be enhance the instant you total looking at this pdf.

-- Prof. Dan Windler MD

It is really an amazing publication i actually have at any time read. It is really simplistic but unexpected situations inside the 50 percent of your pdf. Its been written in an exceptionally simple way in fact it is just right after i finished reading this ebook where actually transformed me, alter the way i really believe.

-- Dr. Celestino Spinka III